II. COMMENCEMENT OF ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS, PLEADINGS, MOTIONS, AND ORDERS

D.C.COLO.LCivR 3.1 CIVIL COVER SHEET

- B. Supplemental Civil Cover Sheet for Notices of Removal. A properly completed Supplemental Civil Cover Sheet for Notices of Removal (see Appendix B) shall be given to the clerk at the time a notice of removal is filed.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 3.2 NOTICE REGARDING JUDICIAL PANEL ON MULTIDISTRICT LITIGATION

A party shall promptly file a notice of pendency of action or proceeding if a civil action filed in this court is the subject of, or related to, an action or proceeding pending before the Judicial Panel on Multidistrict Litigation.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 3.3 PAYMENT OF FEES

- A. Filing Fee. The clerk shall require payment of a filing fee before a civil action, suit, or proceeding is filed. When a pleading is received for filing without the required fee, the clerk shall notify the filing party that the pleadings will be held and not accepted for filing until the required fee is received or an order allowing the party to proceed in forma pauperis is entered. When the filing fee or order is received, the clerk shall file the pleading.
- B. Fees. See Schedule of Fees (Appendix C).

D.C.COLO.LCivR 5.1 FILING AND SERVICE OF PLEADINGS AND PAPERS

- A. Facsimile Filing. A pleading or paper which does not require a filing fee and is no longer than ten pages, including all attachments, may be filed with the clerk by means of facsimile at a telephone number that may be obtained from the court's web site or clerk's office. Upon receipt of a facsimile filing, the clerk will make the copies required under D.C.COLO.LCivR 10.1L. Facsimiles received by the clerk after 5:00 p.m. (Mountain Time) will be considered filed as of the next business day. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a pleading or paper filed by facsimile shall be treated as an original for all court purposes.

B. Facsimile Cover Sheet. A pleading or paper filed with the clerk by facsimile must be accompanied by a facsimile cover sheet (see Appendix D) which includes the following:

1. the date of transmission;
2. the name, facsimile number, and telephone number of the attorney or pro se party making the transmission;
3. the case number, caption, and title of the pleading or paper; and
4. the number of pages of the pleading or paper being transmitted including the facsimile cover sheet.

C. Confirmation of Facsimile Filing. Confirmation that the clerk received a facsimile filing may be made by:

1. reviewing the docket entries, or
2. transmitting an additional copy of the first page of the pleading or paper, and requesting on the facsimile cover sheet that the first page of the pleading or paper be file stamped by the clerk and returned to the attorney or pro se party via facsimile.

D. Original Pleading or Paper. If a facsimile copy is filed in lieu of the original pleading or paper, the attorney or pro se party shall maintain the original document including the certificate of service. See D.C.COLO.LCivR 5.1F. At the direction of a judicial officer, the transmitting party may be required to file the original document accompanied by a letter noting that the original document is being filed after transmission by facsimile.

E. Signatures. Signatures on pleadings or papers filed by facsimile shall have the same legal effect as original signatures on pleadings actually filed with the court.

F. Certificate of Service. Each paper, other than one filed ex parte, shall be accompanied by a certificate of service indicating the date it was served, the name and address of the person to whom it was sent, and the manner of service. Where service is by electronic means, the electronic mail address or facsimile number used shall be listed.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 5.2

SERVICE BY OTHER MEANS, INCLUDING ELECTRONIC MEANS

A. Form and Content of Consent. A party's consent to accept service by other means, including electronic means, as authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b), shall be expressly stated and filed in writing with the clerk. The consent shall include:

See Appendix M

B. Duration of Consent. A party's consent shall remain effective for all service authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5 or Fed. R. Civ. P. 77(d) until expressly revoked or until the representation of a party changes through entry, withdrawal, or substitution of counsel.

C. Notice of Change of Electronic-Mail Address or Facsimile Number. Within ten days after any change of electronic-mail address or facsimile number of any attorney or pro se party that has consented to service by other means, including electronic means, notice of the new electronic-mail address or facsimile number shall be filed.

CUSTODIAN OF NON-FILED DISCOVERY MATERIALS

Counsel or a pro se party noticing a deposition or responsible for serving other non-filed discovery materials shall act for the court as custodian of such material. Nonfiled discovery materials under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(d) include notices to take depositions and discovery subpoenas. The original sealed deposition transcript shall be brought to trial and opened only upon court order.

ELECTRONIC CASE FILING

A. Electronic Filing. Pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(e), the court will permit materials to be filed, signed, and verified by electronic means. Parties filing by electronic means shall comply with standards and procedures set forth in a manual entitled "Electronic Case Filing Procedures for the District of Colorado (Civil Cases)." The current version of that manual shall be available in the clerk's office, and shall be posted on the court's web site.

- B. Paper Filings. Parties authorized or directed to file in paper format, pursuant to exceptions enumerated in the Electronic Case Filing Procedures for the District of Colorado (Civil Cases), shall continue to file in accordance with all provisions of the local rules.
- C. Time. Nothing in the Electronic Case Filing Procedures for the District of Colorado (Civil Cases) alters the rules governing the computation of the deadlines for filing and service of documents that are set forth at Fed. R. Civ. P. 6.
- D. Service. Parties are authorized to make service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2)(D) through the court's transmission facilities.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 6.1

STIPULATIONS AND MOTIONS FOR EXTENSION OF TIME; MOTIONS FOR CONTINUANCE

- A. Extension on Stipulation. The parties may stipulate in writing to a first extension of not more than 20 days beyond the time limits prescribed in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to respond to a complaint, cross-claim, counterclaim, third-party complaint, interrogatories, requests for production of documents, or requests for admissions. The stipulation must be filed before the expiration of the time limits to respond prescribed in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and shall be effective upon filing, unless otherwise ordered. No stipulation by the parties can affect a date or deadline established by court order, including hearing dates and case management deadlines.
- B. Extension Upon Motion. Except as provided in section A. of this rule, all requests for extensions of time must be approved by court order upon motion.
- C. Content of Motion for Extension of Time. A motion for extension of time shall state a date certain for the requested extension of time and set forth the total number of extensions previously obtained by the moving party, including those obtained under section A of this rule, as to the particular matter for which the extension is sought.
- D. Proof of Service. A motion for extension of time or motion for continuance will not be considered without proof that a copy of the motion has been served upon the moving attorney's client, all counsel of record and pro se parties.
- E. Time Limitations. Except as provided in section A. of this rule:
 - 1. no agreement of the parties to shorten or extend any time limitation provided by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or these rules will be recognized or enforced, nor will such an agreement be considered just cause for failing to perform within the time limits established by those rules; and

2. only time variances specifically approved by court order upon motion made within the time limits prescribed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or these rules will be recognized as having any binding or legal effect.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

D.C.COLO.LCivR 7.1 MOTIONS

- A. Duty to Confer. The court will not consider any motion, other than a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12 or 56, unless counsel for the moving party or a pro se party, before filing the motion, has conferred or made reasonable, good-faith efforts to confer with opposing counsel or a pro se party to resolve the disputed matter. The moving party shall state in the motion, or in a certificate attached to the motion, the specific efforts to comply with this rule.
- B. Unopposed Motion. If a motion is unopposed, it shall be entitled “Unopposed Motion for _____.”
- C. Motion, Response, and Reply; Time for Serving and Filing; Length. Excluding motions filed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 or 65, a motion involving a contested issue of law shall state under which rule or statute it is filed and be supported by a recitation of legal authority incorporated into the motion. The responding party shall have 20 days after the filing date of the motion, or such lesser or greater time as the court may allow, in which to file a response. The moving party may file a reply within 15 days after the filing date of the response, or such lesser or greater time as the court may allow. Nothing in this rule precludes a judicial officer from ruling on a motion at any time after it is filed.

A motion shall not be included in a response or reply to the original motion. A motion shall be made in a separate paper.
- D. Citations. Every citation in a motion, response or reply shall include the specific page or statutory subsection to which reference is made. If an unpublished opinion is cited, a copy of the opinion must be attached to the motion, response, or reply in which it is cited.
- E. Supplemental Authority. If the matter is set for hearing, supplemental authority must be filed at least five days before the hearing.
- F. Proposed Order. A moving party may submit a proposed order with an unopposed motion or nondispositive motion. A general order attached to a motion (such as “it is ordered” or “so ordered”) is not permitted. A proposed order must be on separate paper, bear a separate caption, and set out clearly the order’s basis and terms.

- G. Hearings. A motion may be decided on the papers unless oral argument, at the court's discretion, is ordered.
- H. Sanctions. Motions, responses, and replies shall be concise. A verbose, redundant, ungrammatical, or unintelligible motion, response, or reply may be stricken or returned for revision, and its filing may be grounds for imposing sanctions.

- C. Proposed Filing. A proposed filing of papers or documents will be submitted under seal until the motion to seal is decided by a judicial officer.
- D. Public Notice; Objections. On the business day after the filing of a motion to seal or motion to close court proceedings, a public notice will be posted in the clerk's office and on the court's web site. The public notice will advise of such motion and state that any person or entity may file objections to the motion on or before the date set forth in such public notice. The date will be not less than three business days after the public notice is posted.
- E. Order. No order to seal or close court proceedings will be entered before the date set forth in the public notice for filing objections, except in emergency circumstances shown or referred to in the motion.

Plaintiff shall prepare the proposed scheduling order, unless counsel or the pro se parties have agreed otherwise. Any area of disagreement shall be set forth separately with brief statements of the reasons for disagreement. It should be expected that the court will make modifications in the proposed order and will discuss limitations on discovery, simplification of the issues, stipulations of fact, and other matters affecting the management of the litigation. Accordingly, counsel responsible for the trial of the case will be present. The schedule established by a scheduling order shall not be modified except upon a showing of good cause and by leave of court.

At any stage of the proceedings, on a district judge's initiative or pursuant to motion or stipulation of counsel or the pro se parties, a district judge may direct the parties to a suit to engage in an early settlement conference or other alternative dispute resolution proceeding. To facilitate settlement or resolution of the suit, the district judge or a magistrate judge exercising consent jurisdiction may stay the action in whole or in part during a time certain or until further order. Relief from an order under this section may be had upon motion showing good cause. Unless otherwise ordered by a judicial officer, cases exempt from this rule are:

V. DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY

COMPLIANCE WITH FED. R. CIV. P. 26 REQUIREMENTS

- A. Proposed Scheduling Order. The tendering of a proposed scheduling order in the form specified in Appendix F shall satisfy the requirement of submitting a written report outlining the discovery plan pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f).
- B. Pretrial Disclosures. The tendering of a proposed final pretrial order in the form specified in Appendix G shall satisfy the requirement of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) that pretrial disclosures be filed with the court.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 30.1

DEPOSITIONS

- A. Reasonable Notice; Scheduling. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, “reasonable notice” for the taking of depositions shall be not less than 11 days, as computed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 6. Before sending a notice to take a deposition, counsel or the pro se party seeking the deposition shall make a good faith effort to schedule it by agreement at a time reasonably convenient and economically efficient to the proposed deponent, all counsel of record, and pro se parties.

- B. Limiting Time and Expense. Prior to scheduling or noticing any deposition, all counsel and pro se parties involved shall confer in a good-faith effort to agree on reasonable means of limiting the time and expense to be spent for that deposition. D.C.COLO.LCivR 30.2

EFFECT OF FILING MOTION FOR PROTECTIVE ORDER OR MOTION TO LIMIT EXAMINATION

Pending resolution of any motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(c) or 30(d), no party, attorney, or witness is required to appear at the deposition to which the motion is directed until the motion has been resolved. The filing of a motion under either of these rules shall stay the discovery to which the motion is directed until further order of the court.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 30.3

SANCTIONS FOR ABUSIVE DEPOSITION CONDUCT

- A. Prohibited Conduct. The following abusive deposition conduct is prohibited:
1. Making objections or statements which have the effect of coaching the witness, instructing the witness concerning the way in which he or she should frame a response, or suggesting an answer to the witness.
 2. Interrupting examination for an off-the-record conference between counsel and the witness, except for the purpose of determining whether to assert a privilege. Any off-the-record conference during a recess may be a subject for inquiry by the opposing counsel or pro se party, to the extent the conference is not privileged.
 3. Instructing a deponent not to answer a question except when necessary to preserve a privilege, to enforce a limitation on evidence directed by a judicial officer, or to present a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(d)(4).
 4. Filing a motion for protective order or to limit examination without a substantial basis in law.
 5. Questioning that unfairly embarrasses, humiliates, intimidates, or harasses the deponent, or invades his or her privacy absent a clear statement on the record explaining how the answers to such questions will constitute, or lead to, competent evidence admissible at trial.

- B. Standing Order; Special Master. The prohibitions reflected in section A. of this rule shall be treated as a standing order of the court for purposes of Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(b). Whenever it comes to the attention of a judicial officer that an attorney or party has engaged in abusive deposition conduct, a judicial officer may appoint a special master under Fed. R. Civ. P. 53, at the expense of the attorney or person engaging in such conduct (or of both sides), to attend future depositions, exercise such authority, and prepare such reports as a judicial officer shall direct.
- C. Location of Deposition. If deposition abuse is anticipated, a judicial officer may order that any deposition be taken at the courthouse or special master's office so that, at the request of any party, witness, or counsel, any dispute may be heard and decided immediately by a judicial officer or special master.
- D. Expenses, Costs, and Fees. Whenever a judicial officer shall determine that any party or counsel unreasonably has interrupted, delayed, or prolonged any deposition, whether by excessive questioning, objecting, or other conduct, that party or its counsel, or both, may be ordered to pay each other party's expenses, including without limitation, reasonably necessary travel, lodging, reporter's fees, attorney fees, and videotaping expenses, for that portion of the deposition determined to be excessive. In addition, that party or its counsel, or both, may be required to pay all such costs and expenses for any additional depositions or hearing made necessary by its misconduct.

VI. TRIALS

D.C.COLO.LCivR 40.1

ASSIGNMENT OF CASES

- A. Assignment in General. Except as provided in this rule and in D.C.COLO.LCivR 8.1 and 8.2, civil cases shall be assigned to judicial officers by random draw. Work parity shall be maintained among active district judges, provided that a majority of active district judges may adjust the assignment of cases to the Chief Judge as may be necessary for the performance of the duties of that office, and may, for good cause, approve special assignment or reassignment of cases among the judicial officers of the court. All other transfers of cases from one judicial officer to another shall be subject to the Chief Judge's approval.
- B. Random Draw by Computer. The clerk shall maintain a computerized program to assure random and public assignment of new cases on an equal basis among the judicial officers. A senior judge may decline assignment of cases and, on written notice to the Chief Judge, limit participation in the random draw by a stated percentage.

C. Special Assignment.

1. If the pro se plaintiff filing a new case already has a case pending or had a case terminated within 12 months of the new filing, the new case shall be assigned to the district judge who was assigned the earlier case.
2. Once a bankruptcy appeal or motion to withdraw the reference has been assigned to a district judge by random draw, any case subsequently filed concerning the same debtor in bankruptcy shall be assigned to the same district judge. The party filing the subsequent case shall notify the clerk in writing of the pending bankruptcy matter.
3. On filing a civil forfeiture proceeding, the United States Attorney shall notify the clerk in writing when a potential claimant is a defendant in a pending criminal case. The civil case shall be assigned to the judge to whom the criminal case was assigned.
4. A new case claimed to be related to a pending case shall be assigned to the same judicial officers only if the district judge assigned to the pending case grants a motion to consolidate pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P 42(a) and D.C.COLO.LCivR 42.1.

D. “AP” Cases. Upon the filing of any administrative agency or bankruptcy appeal, the clerk will assign a case number without random selection to a district judge designated by the Chief Judge. The case number shall bear the initials “AP” to identify it as an appeal. A separate listing of “AP” cases shall be maintained. The clerk shall confirm that the notice of appeal was timely filed or, in the case of administrative agency appeals, that final agency action is alleged. Judicial staff shall then set the case for a prebriefing conference before a judicial officer. Conference dates will be on a fixed schedule and judicial staff shall schedule each appeal. Notice advising counsel and any pro se party of the conference date shall describe the action to be taken at the prebriefing conference. During the pendency of the action, the clerk will docket all pleadings, briefs and orders, and will prepare the judgment in accordance with the court’s decision on appeal.

1. At the prebriefing conference, the judicial officer will determine whether the appeal can be resolved by stipulation, confession, or settlement. If not, the judicial officer will narrow the issues on appeal, refine the designation of record on appeal, and set the briefing schedule. Reference to Bankruptcy Rule 8009 shall be made in appropriate cases. The clerk shall attend each conference and prepare a minute order setting forth the schedule of further proceedings including the briefing schedule. If, in the opinion of the judicial officer, the appeal is filed for purposes of delay or other just cause appears, the judicial officer shall include in the minute order a notation that the appeal should be expedited, and the clerk shall stamp the word “EXPEDITE” on the face of both court file jackets.

2. The clerk shall monitor the “AP” docket and shall provide such reports and information as requested by the district judge assigned to administer cases filed pursuant to this rule.
 3. The clerk shall refer any motions for extensions of time, for permission to exceed briefing limits, to supplement the record, to strike or impose sanctions, etc., to the district judge assigned to administer cases filed pursuant to this rule. When all briefs are filed and the appeal is at issue, the clerk will draw, using the automated random assignment procedure, a district judge to whom the case will be reassigned. The case will be renumbered, changing the “AP” designation to the assigned district judge’s identification initial(s), and the copy file will be delivered to that district judge. The clerk will advise counsel of record and any pro se party of this reassignment.
 4. No scheduling order shall be prepared in cases governed by this subsection.
- E. Recusal. Recusal of an active judicial officer shall be only by written order setting forth the reasons.
- F. Adjustments. Upon recusal or special assignment of a case to a judge pursuant to this rule or D.C.COLO.LCivR 42.1, the clerk shall adjust the computerized drawing program to maintain the equal assignment of cases among active district judges.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 40.2

- C. Notice of Settlement or Resolution. Whenever the parties have agreed to settle or otherwise resolve a pending matter, they shall immediately notify the court in writing. The court may provide a deadline for the filing of settlement papers or a stipulation for dismissal.

DISMISSAL

A judicial officer may issue an order to show cause why a case should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution or for failure to comply with these rules, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or any court order. Rulings on motions to consolidate shall be given priority. Cases consolidated shall be assigned for all further purposes to the judicial officer to whom the lowest numbered consolidated case previously was assigned for trial. A case not consolidated shall remain assigned to the judicial officer before whom it was pending when the motion to consolidate was filed.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.2

SECURITY

- A. Procedures. All persons entering a building where court is being held shall be subject to security procedures provided for that building.

All briefcases, purses, parcels, bags, backpacks, and other items shall be passed through X-ray scanners and shall be subject to search. This rule shall apply at such other places as a judicial officer may direct.

Failure to obey this rule shall be grounds for refusing admission to the buildings where court is being held, and may subject the offender to detention, arrest, and prosecution as provided by law, or to a contempt proceeding.

- B. Identification or Information. Upon request of a United States marshal, court security officer, federal protective service officer, or court official, anyone within or seeking entry to any court facility shall produce identification and state the nature of his or her business at court. Failure to provide identification or information shall be grounds for removal or exclusion from the facility.
- C. Purpose. This rule and these procedures are necessary in the interest of public safety and to maintain orderly court procedures.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3

THE BAR OF THE COURT

- A. Applicant Information. An applicant for admission to the bar of this court must be a person of good moral character licensed by the highest court of a state, federal territory, or the District of Columbia where a written examination was required for admission and be a member of the bar in good standing in all courts and jurisdictions where he or she has been admitted. Each applicant for admission shall complete an approved form provided by the clerk. Each applicant shall pay to the clerk the fee prescribed by the court.
- B. Entry of Appearance. An attorney's entry of appearance by signing a pleading, motion, or other paper does not constitute entry of appearance by that attorney's firm.
- C. Consent to Jurisdiction; Familiarity With Local Rules. An attorney who applies for admission to the bar of this court:
 - 1. consents to this court's exercise of disciplinary jurisdiction over any alleged misconduct, and
 - 2. certifies familiarity with the local rules of this court.
- D. Withdrawal of Appearance. An attorney who has appeared in a case may seek to withdraw on motion showing good cause. Withdrawal shall be effective only on court order entered after service of the notice of withdrawal on all counsel of record and on the withdrawing attorney's client. A motion to withdraw must state the reasons for withdrawal unless the statement would violate the rules of professional conduct. Notice to the attorney's client must include the warning that the client personally is responsible for complying with all court orders and time limitations established by any applicable rules. Where the withdrawing attorney's client is a corporation, partnership, or other legal entity, the notice shall state that such entity cannot appear without counsel admitted to practice before this court, and absent prompt appearance of substitute counsel, pleadings, motions, and other papers may be stricken, and default judgment or other sanctions may be imposed against the entity.

E. Member in Good Standing. An attorney admitted to the bar of this court must remain in good standing in all courts where admitted. “In good standing” means not subject to suspension or disbarment by any court for any reason. An attorney who is not in good standing shall not practice before the bar of this court or continue to be an attorney of record in any pending case. Upon notice to this court of lack of good standing from the suspending or disbarring jurisdiction, or otherwise, the clerk of this court shall make a notation in the court record of such lack of good standing.

1. Self-Reporting Requirements. Whenever a member of the bar of this court has been suspended or disbarred for any reason by any court, the disciplined attorney shall, within 10 days of the date the disciplinary order enters, give written notice to the clerk of this court of the terms of discipline, the name and address of the court imposing the discipline, and the date of that court’s action. This notice shall be provided regardless of any notification that is provided to this court by the court imposing the discipline.
2. Separate Violation. Failure to self-report or to cease practicing before the bar of this court as required by this rule are themselves separate causes for disciplinary action, except that failure to self-report administrative suspensions for failure to pay an annual registration fee or to comply with mandatory continuing legal education requirements shall not be cause for further disciplinary action by this court.
3. Reinstatement or Readmission. Reinstatement following administrative suspension for failure to pay an annual fee or to comply with mandatory continuing legal education requirements shall be automatic upon receipt by this court of written proof of reinstatement by the original suspending jurisdiction. Application for reinstatement or readmission following suspension or disbarment from practice as a member of the bar of this court for any other reason shall be made in accordance with the terms of D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5I.

F. Relief From Rule of Good Standing. It is presumed that discipline by another court against a member of this court’s bar is appropriate. In order to obtain relief, the attorney so disciplined has the burden to establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

1. the procedure resulting in discipline by the court was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to deny due process,
2. the application of D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3E would result in grave injustice, or
3. the kind of misconduct established has been held by this court to warrant substantially less severe discipline. Applications under this section shall be filed with or referred to the Committee on Conduct, which shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5D.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.4

STANDARDS OF PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Except as otherwise provided in attached Amended Administrative Order 1999-6 concerning unbundling of legal services, the rules of professional conduct adopted by the Colorado Supreme Court and in effect on the effective date of these rules are adopted as standards of professional responsibility applicable in this court.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5

ATTORNEY DISCIPLINE

- A. Disciplinary Panel. The Chief Judge shall appoint a panel of three district judges to constitute the Disciplinary Panel (the “Panel”). The Panel shall have jurisdiction over all judicial proceedings involving disbarment, suspension, censure, or other lawyer discipline. The Chief Judge at any time may designate additional judges to serve as alternates on the Panel.
- B. Committee on Conduct. The court has established a standing Committee on Conduct (the “Committee”) consisting of 12 members of this court’s bar, each appointed for three years and until his or her successor is appointed. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve the unexpired term of his or her predecessor. Where a member holds over after expiration of the term for which appointed, the time of additional service shall be deemed part of the successor member’s term. The court shall designate a chairperson of the Committee and a vice-chairperson who shall act during the chairperson’s absence or disability. Members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but, insofar as possible, their necessary expenses shall be paid by the clerk from the fund in which admission and annual registration fees paid by members of the bar are deposited. No member of the Committee shall serve more than two consecutive terms.
- C. Duties of the Committee. The Committee shall receive, investigate, consider, and act upon complaints against members of the bar, applications for reinstatement or readmission, allegations that a member of this court’s bar is incapable of practicing law due to physical or mental disability or substance abuse, and other similar matters concerning attorneys. The Committee chairperson shall appoint one or more members to present and prosecute charges and to prepare and present orders and judgments as directed by the Panel. The Committee is authorized and directed to report its findings concerning any disciplinary action to the grievance committee of any other bar or court of which the attorney in question may be a member. Additionally, the Committee is authorized to reveal such information to any other court-authorized grievance body as the Committee deems appropriate and consistent with the objectives of this rule. The Committee also may perform any additional duties implied by these rules or assigned by order of the Panel. All requests for investigation submitted to the court or Committee and all complaints filed with the Committee shall be privileged, and no lawsuit may be predicated thereon. Persons performing official duties under this rule, including but not limited to members of the Committee, staff, and members of the bar or others working under the Committee's direction, shall be immune from suit for all acts and omissions occurring in the course of their official duties. All proceedings of the Committee shall be confidential.

- D. Complaints. Any complaint against a member of this court's bar for any conduct which may justify any disciplinary action (not limited to suspension or disbarment) shall be filed in writing under oath, except that complaints filed by a judicial officer of this court need not be under oath. Complaints shall be filed with or referred to the Committee. The Committee shall admonish all persons concerned with any complaint, investigation, or inquiry that absolute confidentiality must be maintained and that violation of this rule will be deemed contempt of this court.
- E. Investigation of Complaints. When a complaint is received, it shall be referred by the chairperson of the Committee to a Subcommittee consisting of three Committee members designated by the chairperson who shall appoint one of them as Subcommittee chairperson. The chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Committee may be designated as a member of a Subcommittee.
1. Service of Complaint and Answer. The Subcommittee shall investigate complaints referred to it by the chairperson of the Committee. A copy of the complaint shall be served on the member of the bar against whom the complaint has been made (the "respondent") by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to his or her most current address on file with the clerk. No answer shall be required unless specifically requested of the respondent by the Subcommittee investigating the complaint. If an answer is requested by the Subcommittee, the respondent shall file an answer under oath with the Subcommittee within 20 days of the date of the request or such later date as agreed upon by a majority of the Subcommittee.
 2. Hearings, Witnesses, and Documents. A Subcommittee may hold hearings upon reasonable notice to the complainant and respondent. The chairperson of the Subcommittee conducting the inquiry shall serve as a master with authority to order issuance of subpoenas commanding the presence of witnesses and/or production of designated books, papers, documents, or other tangibles at the times and places stated in the subpoena. The Subcommittee chairperson, as master, is authorized to administer oaths. The name of any witness who fails or refuses to attend or testify under oath may be certified to the Panel, which may initiate contempt proceedings and impose appropriate punishment.

- F. Resolution of the Complaint by the Committee on Conduct. Upon completion of its investigation, the Subcommittee shall report its recommendations to the full Committee. The Committee may, by a vote of a majority of the Committee in attendance, instruct the Subcommittee in any one of the following ways:
1. Dismissal of the Complaint. If the Committee concludes that the complaint is without merit, the Committee shall instruct the Subcommittee to prepare a letter so advising the complainant and the respondent, to be signed by the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Committee.
 2. Letter of Admonition. If the Committee concludes, based on the report of the Subcommittee, that the misconduct or, in the case of alleged disability or substance abuse, the cause for concern, is sufficiently significant that the complaint should not be dismissed as without merit, but it does not warrant submitting charges to the Panel, the Committee may issue a letter of admonition to the respondent, with a copy to the complainant. An attorney receiving a letter of admonition shall be advised of the right to request in writing, within 20 days after receiving the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the admonition is based. Upon timely filing of such a request, the letter of admonition shall be vacated and the Subcommittee shall proceed to prepare charges in accordance with the formal procedures provided in these rules.
 3. Submission of Charges to the Court. The Committee may instruct the Subcommittee to prepare charges and submit them to the Panel or, with or without preparing charges, may refer the matter to Colorado Attorney Regulation Counsel or another court-authorized grievance body. If charges are prepared and submitted to the Panel, and thereafter the Panel orders the charges filed, the clerk shall file them and forthwith issue a summons commanding the respondent to answer. Except as hereinafter provided, the summons and a copy of the charges shall be served by a United States marshal. A respondent who cannot be served in Colorado may be served by filing a copy of the summons and charges with the clerk, who shall in turn send a copy of the summons and charges by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last office address the respondent filed with the clerk. The respondent shall answer the charges within 30 days from the date of service. Absent a timely answer, the charges may be taken as confessed and hearing may be held ex parte at a time set by the Panel.
- G. Disciplinary Panel Hearings and Orders. A respondent against whom charges have been filed shall be entitled to be represented by counsel, at his or her own expense unless indigent. When the respondent has filed an answer, an evidentiary hearing shall be scheduled by the Panel. The Panel may ask the chairperson of the Committee to appoint one or more members of the Committee to offer evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise represent the Committee in prosecuting the charges. If the charges are sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the Panel may censure, suspend, disbar, or otherwise discipline the respondent. A respondent who is suspended or disbarred shall be enjoined from practicing law before this court and the judgment shall so recite. Any violation of the judgment shall be deemed a contempt of court.

H. Rule Not to Deprive Court of Inherent Powers. Nothing herein stated shall be deemed to negate or diminish this court's inherent disciplinary powers.

I. Application for Reinstatement or Readmission.

1. General Procedure. An attorney who has been suspended or disbarred may apply for reinstatement or readmission at the end of the disciplinary period. Each applicant for readmission or reinstatement shall complete an approved form provided by the clerk. Reinstatement or readmission is neither automatic nor a matter of right. Every application for reinstatement or readmission shall be investigated by one or more members of the Committee appointed by the Committee's chairperson. Following investigation, the Committee shall prepare a recommendation on the application. The recommendation and supporting documents shall be submitted to the Panel for decision. Reinstatement or readmission may be subject to conditions such as monitoring, reporting, testing, and education.
2. Relationship to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3E and D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5E. Suspension or disbarment of an attorney by any court may result in suspension or disbarment in a court other than the original disciplining court. An attorney applying for reinstatement or readmission to this court following reinstatement or readmission by the original disciplining court who remains suspended or disbarred in a court other than the original disciplining court or this court is subject to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3E and D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5E requiring attorneys to be in good standing in all courts where admitted in order to be or remain admitted to the bar of this court. An attorney suspended or disbarred automatically in a court other than the original disciplining court or this court as a result of suspension or disbarment by the original disciplining court may petition this court for relief from the rule of good standing pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3F or D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5F, stating appropriate grounds for such relief.

J. Effect of Conviction or Resignation from Another Bar While Under Investigation, and Duty to Report Pendency of Criminal Offenses.

1. Attorney Subject to a Criminal Conviction. Any member of this court's bar who is convicted of a crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of more than one year, shall, within 10 days of the conviction, give written notice to the clerk of this court of the conviction including the terms of the conviction, the court entering the conviction and the date of conviction. Upon notice to the court by the attorney or otherwise, the convicted attorney shall be suspended from practicing law in this court. Upon the conviction becoming final with no further right of appeal, the Panel shall disbar the attorney from practicing as a member of the bar of this court. For purposes of this rule, “conviction” shall include any ultimate finding of fact in a criminal proceedings that the individual is guilty of a crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of more than one year, whether the judgment rests on a verdict of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere, and irrespective of whether the entry of judgment or imposition of sentence is suspended or deferred by the court.

2. Attorney Under Investigation Resigning from Bar of Another Court. Any member of this court’s bar who resigns from the bar of any other federal or state court while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending shall, within 10 days of resigning, give written notice of such resignation to the clerk of this court. Upon receipt of notice of resignation from the attorney or otherwise, the Panel shall disbar the attorney from practicing as a member of the bar of this court.
3. Duty of Attorney to Notify Court of Pendency of Criminal Charges. Any member of this court’s bar who is charged in any court with a criminal offense that may subject the attorney to discipline in this court shall so notify the clerk in writing within ten days after the charge is filed.

K. Mental or Physical Incompetence or Disability, or Substance Abuse.

1. Declaration of Mental Incompetence. Upon receiving proof that a member of this court’s bar judicially has been declared incompetent or involuntarily committed to a mental hospital, the Panel may order that the attorney be suspended from practicing law immediately and indefinitely until further order. A copy of the order shall be served upon the attorney, his or her guardian, and the director of the mental hospital.
2. Role of the Committee on Conduct. In matters involving an allegation that a member of this court’s bar is incapable of practicing law because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse, the Subcommittee assigned by the Chair of the Committee may take or direct whatever action it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney is disabled or is adversely affected by substance abuse, including examination by such experts the Subcommittee shall designate. The cost of such examination shall be borne by the court. Failure or refusal to submit to examination shall result in certification of the name of the attorney to the Panel, which may initiate contempt proceedings and impose appropriate punishment. Any attorney who submits to examination may obtain a second opinion from expert(s) of his or her choice at his or her sole expense and may submit the results of such additional examination(s) to the Committee for consideration along with all other evidence. If the Committee determines that the attorney is incapable of practicing law, the Committee shall petition the Panel for an order of suspension. As an alternative to examination an attorney may elect to go on disability inactive status, and the Committee shall advise the attorney of this option prior to ordering examination. Any attorney who makes such an election shall be required to apply for reinstatement pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5I and 83.5K.5 before practicing again in this court.

3. Role of the Disciplinary Panel. Upon petition by the Committee suggesting that a member of this court's bar is incapable of practicing law because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse, the Panel may take or direct whatever action it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney is disabled, including examination by medical experts the Panel shall designate if no such examination had been ordered previously by the Committee or if the Panel desires further examination. The cost of such examination shall be borne by the court. Failure or refusal to submit to examination shall be prima facie evidence of disability. Any attorney who submits to examination may obtain a second opinion from expert(s) of his or her choice at his or her sole expense and may submit the results of such additional examination(s) to the Panel for consideration along with all other evidence. If the Panel concludes from the evidence that the attorney is incapable of practicing law competently, it shall order him or her suspended until further order. Prior to ordering suspension the Panel may, in its sole discretion, offer the attorney an opportunity to go on disability inactive status voluntarily. The Panel may provide respondent notice of the proceedings and may appoint an attorney to represent a respondent who is without representation. Any attorney who elects disability inactive status or is suspended because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse must apply for reinstatement pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5I and 83.5K.5 before practicing again in this court.
4. Claim of Disability During Disciplinary Proceedings. If during a disciplinary proceeding the respondent attorney asserts a disability by reason of mental or physical illness or substance abuse, rendering adequate defense impossible, the Panel shall order the respondent suspended from practicing law until there can be a determination pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5K.2 and 3 of his or her capacity to practice law.
5. Attorney Placed on Disability Inactive Status by Other Courts. A member of this court's bar who is placed on disability inactive status by any state or federal court is prohibited from practicing before this court during such status. Reinstatement upon termination of disability inactive status shall be in accordance with D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5K.5. through K.9.

6. Reinstatement After Disability Inactive Status or Suspension Because of Disability.
 - a. An attorney who has elected to go on disability inactive status or who has been suspended for mental or physical disability or substance abuse may apply to the Panel for reinstatement not more than once a year, or more frequently if the Panel so directs. The application shall be granted upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the attorney no longer is disabled and is fit to practice law. The Panel, or the Committee if the Panel chooses to delegate initial consideration of the application for reinstatement to the Committee pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5I, may take or direct such action as it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney's disability has been remedied, including examination by such medical experts as the Panel or Committee may designate. The Panel or Committee may direct that any examination expenses be paid by the attorney.
 - b. An attorney suspended because of a judicial declaration of incompetence or involuntary commitment to a mental hospital, who thereafter judicially is declared competent, may apply for reinstatement upon proper proof of the latter declaration, and reinstatement may be subject to such conditions as the Panel may require.
 7. Evidentiary Hearing. If the Panel holds an evidentiary hearing to determine whether an attorney is disabled or to consider an application for reinstatement, the chairperson of the Committee shall appoint one or more members to offer evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise represent the Committee.
 8. Waiver of Physician/Patient Privilege. Filing an application for reinstatement constitutes waiver of any physician-patient privilege with respect to any related treatment of the attorney. The attorney shall disclose the name and address of every psychiatrist, psychologist, physician, hospital, or other health-care provider that has examined or treated him or her since three (3) years prior to his or her suspension and shall furnish the Panel or the Committee written consent to obtain from these sources information and records requested by the Panel or the Committee or its designated medical experts.
 9. Orders Transferring. Orders transferring attorneys to or from disability inactive status are matters of public record.
- L. Complaint against Sitting Member of the Committee on Conduct. If a complaint is lodged against a sitting member of the Committee, in lieu of investigation by any other sitting member of the Committee the court shall appoint a Special Subcommittee consisting of three members of the bar of the court who in the past have served on the Committee but not as co-members with the member against whom the complaint is lodged, or such other members of the bar of the court as the court may choose. The court shall designate one of the three as chair of the Special Subcommittee. The Special Subcommittee shall follow the procedures set out in D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.5 E, F, and G, with the exception that the Special Subcommittee shall work directly with the Panel rather than the full Committee.

THE BAR OF THE COURT

- A. Applicant Information. An applicant for admission to the bar of this court must be a person of good moral character licensed by the highest court of a state, federal territory, or the District of Columbia where a written examination was required for admission and be a member of the bar in good standing in all courts and jurisdictions where he or she has been admitted. Each applicant for admission shall complete an approved form provided by the clerk. Each applicant shall pay to the clerk the fee prescribed by the court..
- B. Entry of Appearance. An attorney's entry of appearance by signing a pleading, motion, or other paper does not constitute entry of appearance by that attorney's firm.

- C. Consent to Jurisdiction; Familiarity With Local Rules. An attorney who applies for admission to the bar of this court:
1. consents to this court's exercise of disciplinary jurisdiction over any alleged misconduct, and
 2. certifies familiarity with the local rules of this court.
- D. Withdrawal of Appearance. An attorney who has appeared in a case may seek to withdraw on motion showing good cause. Withdrawal shall be effective only on court order entered after service of the notice of withdrawal on all counsel of record and on the withdrawing attorney's client. A motion to withdraw must state the reasons for withdrawal unless the statement would violate the rules of professional conduct. Notice to the attorney's client must include the warning that the client personally is responsible for complying with all court orders and time limitations established by any applicable rules. Where the withdrawing attorney's client is a corporation, partnership, or other legal entity, the notice shall state that such entity cannot appear without counsel admitted to practice before this court, and absent prompt appearance of substitute counsel, pleadings, motions, and other papers may be stricken, and default judgment or other sanctions may be imposed against the entity.
- E. Member in Good Standing. An attorney admitted to the bar of this court must remain in good standing in all courts where admitted. "In good standing" means not subject to suspension or disbarment by any court for any reason. An attorney who is not in good standing shall not practice before the bar of this court or continue to be an attorney of record in any pending case. Upon notice to this court of lack of good standing from the suspending or disbarring jurisdiction, or otherwise, the clerk of this court shall make a notation in the court record of such lack of good standing.
1. Self-Reporting Requirements. Whenever a member of the bar of this court has been suspended or disbarred for any reason by any court, the disciplined attorney shall, within 10 days of the date the disciplinary order enters, give written notice to the clerk of this court of the terms of discipline, the name and address of the court imposing the discipline, and the date of that court's action. This notice shall be provided regardless of any notification that is provided to this court by the court imposing the discipline.
 2. Separate Violation. Failure to self-report or to cease practicing before the bar of this court as required by this rule are themselves separate causes for disciplinary action, except that failure to self-report administrative suspensions for failure to pay an annual registration fee or to comply with mandatory continuing legal education requirements shall not be cause for further disciplinary action by this court.

3. Reinstatement or Readmission. Reinstatement following administrative suspension for failure to pay an annual fee or to comply with mandatory continuing legal education requirements shall be automatic upon receipt by this court of written proof of reinstatement by the original suspending jurisdiction. Application for reinstatement or readmission following suspension or disbarment from practice as a member of the bar of this court for any other reason shall be made in accordance with the terms of D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7I.

F. Relief From Rule of Good Standing. It is presumed that discipline by another court against a member of this court's bar is appropriate. In order to obtain relief, the attorney so disciplined has the burden to establish, by clear and convincing evidence, that:

1. the procedure resulting in discipline by the court was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to deny due process;
2. application of D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5E.would result in grave injustice; or
3. the kind of misconduct established has been held by this court to warrant substantially less severe discipline. Applications under this section shall be filed with or referred to the Committee on Conduct, which shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7D.

D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.6

The court shall designate a chairperson of the Committee and a vice-chairperson who shall act during the chairperson's absence or disability. Members of the Committee shall serve without compensation, but, insofar as possible, their necessary expenses shall be paid by the clerk from the fund in which admission and annual registration fees paid by members of the bar are deposited. The Committee chairperson shall appoint one or more members to present and prosecute charges and to prepare and present orders and judgments as directed by the Panel. The Committee is authorized and directed to report its findings concerning any disciplinary action to the grievance committee of any other bar or court of which the attorney in question may be a member. Additionally, the Committee is authorized to reveal such information to any other court-authorized grievance body as the Committee deems appropriate and consistent with the objectives of this rule. The Committee also may perform any additional duties implied by these rules or assigned by order of the Panel. All requests for investigation submitted to the court or Committee and all complaints filed with the Committee shall be privileged, and no lawsuit may be predicated thereon. Persons performing official duties under this rule, including but not limited to members of the Committee, staff, and members of the bar or others working under the Committee's direction, shall be immune from suit for all acts and omissions occurring in the course of their official duties. All proceedings of the Committee shall be confidential.
- D. Complaints. Any complaint against a member of this court's bar for any conduct which may justify any disciplinary action (not limited to suspension or disbarment) shall be filed in writing under oath, except that complaints filed by a judicial officer of this court need not be under oath. Complaints shall be filed with or referred to the Committee. The Committee shall admonish all persons concerned with any complaint, investigation, or inquiry that absolute confidentiality must be maintained and that violation of this rule will be deemed contempt of this court.
- E. Investigation of Complaints. When a complaint is received, it shall be referred by the chairperson of the Committee to a Subcommittee consisting of three Committee members designated by the chairperson who shall appoint one of them as Subcommittee chairperson. The chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Committee may be designated as a member of a Subcommittee.

1. Service of Complaint and Answer. The Subcommittee shall investigate complaints referred to it by the chairperson of the Committee. A copy of the complaint shall be served on the member of the bar against whom the complaint has been made (the “respondent”) by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to his or her most current address on file with the clerk. No answer shall be required unless specifically requested of the respondent by the Subcommittee investigating the complaint. If an answer is requested by the Subcommittee, the respondent shall file an answer under oath with the Subcommittee within 20 days of the date of the request or such later date as agreed upon by a majority of the Subcommittee.
2. Hearings, Witnesses, and Documents. A Subcommittee may hold hearings upon reasonable notice to the complainant and respondent. The chairperson of the Subcommittee conducting the inquiry shall serve as a master with authority to order issuance of subpoenas commanding the presence of witnesses and/or production of designated books, papers, documents, or other tangibles at the times and places stated in the subpoena. The Subcommittee chairperson, as master, is authorized to administer oaths. The name of any witness who fails or refuses to attend or testify under oath may be certified to the Panel, which may initiate contempt proceedings and impose appropriate punishment.

F. Resolution of the Complaint by the Committee on Conduct. Upon completion of its investigation, the Subcommittee shall report its recommendations to the full Committee. The Committee may, by a vote of a majority of the Committee in attendance, instruct the Subcommittee in any one of the following ways:

1. Dismissal of the Complaint. If the Committee concludes that the complaint is without merit, the Committee shall instruct the Subcommittee to prepare a letter so advising the complainant and the respondent, to be signed by the chairperson or vice-chairperson of the Committee.
2. Letter of Admonition. If the Committee concludes, based on the report of the Subcommittee, that the misconduct or, in the case of alleged disability or substance abuse, the cause for concern, is sufficiently significant that the complaint should not be dismissed as without merit, but it does not warrant submitting charges to the Panel, the Committee may issue a letter of admonition to the respondent, with a copy to the complainant. An attorney receiving a letter of admonition shall be advised of the right to request in writing, within 20 days after receiving the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the admonition is based. Upon timely filing of such a request, the letter of admonition shall be vacated and the Subcommittee shall proceed to prepare charges in accordance with the formal procedures provided in these rules.

3. Submission of Charges to the Court. The Committee may instruct the Subcommittee to prepare charges and submit them to the Panel or, with or without preparing charges, may refer the matter to Colorado Attorney Regulation Counsel or another court-authorized grievance body. If charges are prepared and submitted to the Panel, and thereafter the Panel orders the charges filed, the clerk shall file them and forthwith issue a summons commanding the respondent to answer. Except as hereinafter provided, the summons and a copy of the charges shall be served by a United States marshal. A respondent who cannot be served in Colorado may be served by filing a copy of the summons and charges with the clerk, who shall in turn send a copy of the summons and charges by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last office address the respondent filed with the clerk. The respondent shall answer the charges within 30 days from the date of service. Absent a timely answer, the charges may be taken as confessed and hearing may be held ex parte at a time set by the Panel.

G. Disciplinary Panel Hearings and Orders. A respondent against whom charges have been filed shall be entitled to be represented by counsel, at his or her own expense unless indigent. When the respondent has filed an answer, an evidentiary hearing shall be scheduled by the Panel. The Panel may ask the chairperson of the Committee to appoint one or more members of the Committee to offer evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise represent the Committee in prosecuting the charges. If the charges are sustained by clear and convincing evidence, the Panel may censure, suspend, disbar, or otherwise discipline the respondent. A respondent who is suspended or disbarred shall be enjoined from practicing law before this court and the judgment shall so recite. Any violation of the judgment shall be deemed a contempt of court.

H. Rule Not to Deprive Court of Inherent Powers. Nothing herein stated shall be deemed to negate or diminish this court's inherent disciplinary powers.

I. Application for Reinstatement or Readmission.

1. General Procedure. An attorney who has been suspended or disbarred may apply for reinstatement or readmission at the end of the disciplinary period. Each applicant for readmission or reinstatement shall complete an approved form provided by the clerk. Reinstatement or readmission is neither automatic nor a matter of right. Every application for reinstatement or readmission shall be investigated by one or more members of the Committee appointed by the Committee's chairperson. Following investigation, the Committee shall prepare a recommendation on the application. The recommendation and supporting documents shall be submitted to the Panel for decision. Reinstatement or readmission may be subject to conditions such as monitoring, reporting, testing, and education.
2. Relationship to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3E and D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5E. Suspension or disbarment of an attorney by any court may result in suspension or disbarment in a court other than the original disciplining court. An attorney applying for reinstatement or readmission to this court following reinstatement or readmission by the original disciplining court who remains suspended or disbarred in a court other than the original disciplining court or this court is subject to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3E and D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5E requiring attorneys to be in good standing in all courts where admitted in order to be or remain admitted to the bar of this court. An attorney suspended or disbarred automatically in a court other than the original disciplining court or this court as a result of suspension or disbarment by the original disciplining court may petition this court for relief from the rule of good standing pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 83.3F or D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.5F, stating appropriate grounds for such relief.

J. Effect of Conviction or Resignation from Another Bar While Under Investigation, and Duty to Report Pendency of Criminal Offenses.

1. Attorney Subject to a Criminal Conviction. Any member of this court's bar who is convicted of a crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of more than one year, shall, within 10 days of the conviction, give written notice to the clerk of this court of the conviction including the terms of the conviction, the court entering the conviction and the date of conviction. Upon notice to the court by the attorney or otherwise, the convicted attorney shall be suspended from practicing law in this court. Upon the conviction becoming final with no further right of appeal, the Panel shall disbar the attorney from practicing as a member of the bar of this court. For purposes of this rule, "conviction" shall include any ultimate finding of fact in a criminal proceedings that the individual is guilty of a crime punishable by a term of imprisonment of more than one year, whether the judgment rests on a verdict of guilty, a plea of guilty, or a plea of nolo contendere, and irrespective of whether the entry of judgment or imposition of sentence is suspended or deferred by the court.
2. Attorney Under Investigation Resigning from Bar of Another Court. Any member of this court's bar who resigns from the bar of any other federal or state court while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending shall, within 10 days of resigning, give written notice of such resignation to the clerk of this court. . Upon receipt of notice of resignation from the attorney or otherwise, the Panel shall disbar the attorney from practicing as a member of the bar of this court.
3. Duty of Attorney to Notify Court of Pendency of Criminal Charges. Any member of this court's bar who is charged in any court with a criminal offense that may subject the attorney to discipline in this court shall so notify the clerk in writing within ten days after the charge is filed.

K. Mental or Physical Incompetence or Disability, or Substance Abuse.

1. Declaration of Mental Incompetence. Upon receiving proof that a member of this court's bar judicially has been declared incompetent or involuntarily committed to a mental hospital, the Panel may order that the attorney be suspended from practicing law immediately and indefinitely until further order. A copy of the order shall be served upon the attorney, his or her guardian, and the director of the mental hospital.
2. Role of the Committee on Conduct. In matters involving an allegation that a member of this court's bar is incapable of practicing law because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse, the Subcommittee assigned by the Chair of the Committee may take or direct whatever action it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney is disabled or is adversely affected by substance abuse, including examination by such experts the Subcommittee shall designate. The cost of such examination shall be borne by the court. Failure or refusal to submit to examination shall result in certification of the name of the attorney to the Panel, which may initiate contempt proceedings and impose appropriate punishment. Any attorney who submits to examination may obtain a second opinion from expert(s) of his or her choice at his or her sole expense and may submit the results of such additional examination(s) to the Committee for consideration along with all other evidence. If the Committee determines that the attorney is incapable of practicing law, the Committee shall petition the Panel for an order of suspension. As an alternative to examination an attorney may elect to go on disability inactive status, and the Committee shall advise the attorney of this option prior to ordering examination. Any attorney who makes such an election shall be required to apply for reinstatement pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7I and 57.7K.5 before practicing again in this court.
3. Role of the Disciplinary Panel. Upon petition by the Committee suggesting that a member of this court's bar is incapable of practicing law because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse, the Panel may take or direct whatever action it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney is disabled, including examination by medical experts the Panel shall designate if no such examination had been ordered previously by the Committee or if the Panel desires further examination. The cost of such examination shall be borne by the court. Failure or refusal to submit to examination shall be prima facie evidence of disability. Any attorney who submits to examination may obtain a second opinion from expert(s) of his or her choice at his or her sole expense and may submit the results of such additional examination(s) to the Panel for consideration along with all other evidence. If the Panel concludes from the evidence that the attorney is incapable of practicing law competently, it shall order him or her suspended until further order. Prior to ordering suspension the Panel may, in its sole discretion, offer the attorney an opportunity to go on disability inactive status voluntarily. The Panel may provide respondent notice of the proceedings and may appoint an attorney to represent a respondent who is without representation. Any attorney who elects disability inactive status or is suspended because of mental or physical disability or substance abuse must apply for reinstatement pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7I and 57.7K.5 before practicing again in this court.

4. Claim of Disability During Disciplinary Proceedings. If during a disciplinary proceeding the respondent attorney asserts a disability by reason of mental or physical illness or substance abuse, rendering adequate defense impossible, the Panel shall order the respondent suspended from practicing law until there can be a determination pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7K.2 and 3 of his or her capacity to practice law.
5. Attorney Placed on Disability Inactive Status by Other Courts. A member of this court's bar who is placed on disability inactive status by any state or federal court is prohibited from practicing before this court during such status. Reinstatement upon termination of disability inactive status shall be in accordance with D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7K.5. through K.9.
6. Reinstatement After Disability Inactive Status or Suspension Because of Disability.
 - a. An attorney who has elected to go on disability inactive status or who has been suspended for mental or physical disability or substance abuse may apply to the Panel for reinstatement not more than once a year, or more frequently if the Panel so directs. The application shall be granted upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the attorney no longer is disabled and is fit to practice law. The Panel, or the Committee if the Panel chooses to delegate initial consideration of the application for reinstatement to the Committee pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7I, may take or direct such action as it deems appropriate to determine whether the attorney's disability has been remedied, including examination by such medical experts as the Panel or Committee may designate. The Panel or Committee may direct that any examination expenses be paid by the attorney.
 - b. An attorney suspended because of a judicial declaration of incompetence or involuntary commitment to a mental hospital, who thereafter judicially is declared competent, may apply for reinstatement upon proper proof of the latter declaration, and reinstatement may be subject to such conditions as the Panel may require.
7. Evidentiary Hearing. If the Panel holds an evidentiary hearing to determine whether an attorney is disabled or to consider an application for reinstatement, the chairperson of the Committee shall appoint one or more members to offer evidence, examine and cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise represent the Committee.

8. Waiver of Physician/Patient Privilege. Filing an application for reinstatement constitutes waiver of any physician-patient privilege with respect to any related treatment of the attorney. The attorney shall disclose the name and address of every psychiatrist, psychologist, physician, hospital, or other health-care provider that has examined or treated him or her since three (3) years prior to his or her suspension and shall furnish the Panel or the Committee written consent to obtain from these sources information and records requested by the Panel or the Committee or its designated medical experts.
9. Orders Transferring. Orders transferring attorneys to or from disability inactive status are matters of public record.

- L. Complaint against Sitting Member of the Committee on Conduct. If a complaint is lodged against a sitting member of the Committee, in lieu of investigation by any other sitting member of the Committee the court shall appoint a Special Subcommittee consisting of three members of the bar of the court who in the past have served on the Committee but not as co-members with the member against whom the complaint is lodged, or such other members of the bar of the court as the court may choose. The court shall designate one of the three as chair of the Special Subcommittee. The Special Subcommittee shall follow the procedures set out in D.C.COLO.LCrR 57.7 E, F, and G, with the exception that the Special Subcommittee shall work directly with the Panel rather than the full Committee.

D.C.COLO.LCrR 58.1

- B. Petty Offenses; Collateral. With respect to any petty offense, a judicial officer shall have the authority to specify a collateral forfeiture amount different from that set out in this rule so long as an attorney or other representative of the government consents.

- D. Forfeiture. If a defendant fails to appear before a judicial officer after posting collateral, the collateral shall be forfeited to the United States, and that forfeiture shall be accepted in lieu of appearance and shall terminate the proceeding.
- E. Increase in Amount of Collateral. If a defendant fails to post collateral and fails to appear before a judicial officer, a judicial officer may increase the amount of collateral. The increased amount of collateral shall not exceed double the maximum fine which could be imposed upon conviction.
- F. Forfeiture Not Permitted; Appearance Required. Notwithstanding section D. above, forfeiture of collateral will not be permitted, and the defendant is required to appear before a judicial officer in person or by counsel for:
1. an offense arising from an accident causing personal injury or death;
 2. operation of a motor vehicle while impaired by or under the influence of alcohol or a drug or controlled substance as defined by federal or state statutes;
 3. driving while a driver's license is suspended, denied, or revoked;
 4. reckless driving;

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS COMPLETING CIVIL COVER SHEET FORM JS 44

Authority For Civil Cover Sheet

The JS 44 civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleading or other papers as required by law, except as provided by local rules of court. This form, approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States in September 1974, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil complaint filed. The attorney filing a case should complete the form as follows:

I. (a) Plaintiffs-Defendants. Enter names (last, first, middle initial) of plaintiff and defendant. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a government agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.

(b) County of Residence. For each civil case filed, except U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county where the first listed plaintiff resides at the time of filing. In U.S. plaintiff cases, enter the name of the county in which the first listed defendant resides at the time of filing. (NOTE: In land condemnation cases, the county of residence of the "defendant" is the location of the tract of land involved.)

(c) Attorneys. Enter the firm name, address, telephone number, and attorney of record. If there are several attorneys, list them on an attachment, noting in this section "(see attachment)".

II. Jurisdiction. The basis of jurisdiction is set forth under Rule 8(a), F.R.C.P., which requires that jurisdictions be shown in pleadings. Place an "X" in one of the boxes. If there is more than one basis of jurisdiction, precedence is given in the order shown below.

United States plaintiff. (1) Jurisdiction based on 28 U.S.C. 1345 and 1348. Suits by agencies and officers of the United States are included here.

United States defendant. (2) When the plaintiff is suing the United States, its officers or agencies, place an "X" in this box.

Federal question. (3) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1331, where jurisdiction arises under the Constitution of the United States, an amendment to the Constitution, an act of Congress or a treaty of the United States. In cases where the U.S. is a party, the U.S. plaintiff or defendant code takes precedence, and box 1 or 2 should be marked.

Diversity of citizenship. (4) This refers to suits under 28 U.S.C. 1332, where parties are citizens of different states. When Box 4 is checked, the citizenship of the different parties must be checked. (See Section III below; federal question actions take precedence over diversity cases.)

III. Residence (citizenship) of Principal Parties. This section of the JS 44 is to be completed if diversity of citizenship was indicated above. Mark this section for each principal party.

IV. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, be sure the cause of action, in Section VI below, is sufficient to enable the deputy clerk or the statistical clerks in the Administrative Office to determine the nature of suit. If the cause fits more than one nature of suit, select the most definitive.

V. Origin. Place an "X" in one of the seven boxes.

Original Proceedings. (1) Cases which originate in the United States district courts.

Removed from State Court. (2) Proceedings initiated in state courts may be removed to the district courts under Title 28 U.S.C., Section 1441. When the petition for removal is granted, check this box.

Remanded from Appellate Court. (3) Check this box for cases remanded to the district court for further action. Use the date of remand as the filing date.

Reinstated or Reopened. (4) Check this box for cases reinstated or reopened in the district court. Use the reopening date as the filing date.

Transferred from Another District. (5) For cases transferred under Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1404(a). Do not use this for within district transfers or multidistrict litigation transfers.

Multidistrict Litigation. (6) Check this box when a multidistrict case is transferred into the district under authority of Title 28 U.S.C. Section 1407. When this box is checked, do not check (5) above.

Appeal to District Judge from Magistrate Judgment. (7) Check this box for an appeal from a magistrate judge's decision.

VI. Cause of Action. Report the civil statute directly related to the cause of action and give a brief description of the cause. Do not cite jurisdictional statutes unless diversity. Example: U.S. Civil Statute: 47 USC 553
Brief Description: Unauthorized reception of cable service

VII. Requested in Complaint. Class Action. Place an "X" in this box if you are filing a class action under Rule 23, F.R.Cv.P.

Demand. In this space enter the dollar amount (in thousands of dollars) being demanded or indicate other demand such as a preliminary injunction.

Jury Demand. Check the appropriate box to indicate whether or not a jury is being demanded.

Date and Attorney Signature. Date and sign the civil cover sheet.

SUPPLEMENTAL CIVIL COVER SHEET FOR

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF SCHEDULING ORDER

When the court has set a scheduling conference pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and D.C.COLO.LCivR 16.1 and 16.2 , a scheduling order shall be prepared in accordance with these instructions. The rule 26(f) meeting shall be held at least 21 days before the proposed scheduling order is due to be tendered. The disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1) shall be exchanged at or within 14 days after the rule 26(f) meeting. Do not file any disclosure statements with the court.

Five days before the scheduling conference (see Fed. R. Civ. P. 6 for all computations of time), counsel are to tender a proposed scheduling order which shall include the signatures of counsel and pro se parties and shall provide for approval by the court as specified on the attached form. Counsel and pro se parties should try, in good faith, to agree upon matters covered in the scheduling order. Any area of disagreement should be set forth with a brief statement concerning the basis for the disagreement. The parties should expect that the court will make modifications in the proposed scheduling order and will want to discuss all issues affecting management of the case.

D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2 authorizes magistrates judges to exercise jurisdiction of civil matters upon the consent of the parties. If all parties have consented to the exercise of jurisdiction by a magistrate judge pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2, the "Notice of Availability of a United States Magistrate Judge to Exercise Jurisdiction and Consent to the Exercise of Jurisdiction by a United States Magistrate Judge" form and a proposed order of reference are to be filed promptly with the Clerk of the Court and the consent indicated in section 6. of the proposed scheduling order. Note that D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2D. provides, in part: "Written consent to proceed before a magistrate judge must be filed no later than ten days after the discovery cut-off date. In cases not requiring discovery, the parties shall have 40 days from the filing of the last responsive pleading to file their unanimous consent." Refer to D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2F. if all parties have not been served or in the event additional parties are added after the scheduling conference.

Listed on the following pages is the format for the proposed scheduling order. The bracketed and italicized information on the form explains what the court expects.

Scheduling orders shall be double-spaced in accordance with D.C.COLO.LCivR 10.1E., even though the instructions in the following format for the proposed scheduling order are single-spaced.

4. UNDISPUTED FACTS

The following facts are undisputed:

[When the parties have their rule 26(f) meeting, they should make a good-faith attempt to determine which facts are not in dispute.]

5. COMPUTATION OF DAMAGES

e. Statement concerning any agreements to conduct informal discovery, including joint interviews with potential witnesses, exchanges of documents, and joint meetings with clients to discuss settlement. Describe any agreements the parties have reached for asserting claims of privilege or of protection as trial- preparation materials after production of computer-generated records.

[When the parties have their Rule 26(f) meeting, they must discuss any issues relating to the disclosure and discovery of electronically stored information, including the form of production, and also discuss issues relating to the preservation of electronically stored information, communications, and other data. At the Rule 26(f) conference, the parties should make a good faith effort to agree on a mutually acceptable format for production of electronic or computer-based information. In advance of the Rule 26(f) meeting, counsel should carefully investigate their client's information management system so that they are knowledgeable as to its operation, including how information is stored and how it can be retrieved.]

7. CONSENT

[Pursuant to D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2, all full-time magistrate judges in the District of Colorado are specially designated under 28 U.S.C. §636(c)(1) to conduct any or all proceedings in any jury or nonjury civil matter and to order the entry of judgment. Upon consent of the parties and an order of reference from the district judge, the magistrate judge assigned the case under 28 U.S.C. § 636(a) and (b) will hold the scheduling conference and retain settlement jurisdiction, whereas pretrial case management, jurisdiction of dispositive motions, and trial will be assigned to the magistrate judge drawn at random under D.C.COLO.LCivR 72.2.]

[Indicate below the parties' consent choice.]

All parties [have or have not] consented to the exercise of jurisdiction of a magistrate judge.

8. CASE PLAN AND SCHEDULE

a. Deadline for Joinder of Parties and Amendment of Pleadings:

[Set time period within which to join other parties and to amend all pleadings. This portion of the scheduling order relates to timing only. It does not eliminate the necessity to file an appropriate motion and to otherwise comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 15. Unless otherwise ordered in a particular case, for good cause, these dates should be no later than 45 days after the date of the scheduling conference, so as to minimize the possibility that late amendments and joinder of parties will precipitate requests for extensions of discovery cutoff, final pretrial conference, and dispositive motion dates. Counsel and pro se parties should plan discovery so that discovery designed to identify additional parties or claims is completed before these deadlines.]

b. Discovery Cut-off:

c. Dispositive Motion Deadline:

[Set time periods in which discovery is to be completed and dispositive motions are to be filed.]

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B), no exception to the requirements of the rule will be allowed by stipulation of the parties unless the stipulation is approved by the court.]

- (3) Modifications which any party proposes on the presumptive numbers of depositions or interrogatories contained in the federal rules.
- (4) Limitations which any party proposes on number of requests for production of documents and/or requests for admissions.

[At the rule 26(f) meeting, the parties should make a good-faith attempt to agree to limit the number of depositions, interrogatories, requests for admissions, and requests for production. In the majority of cases, the parties should anticipate that the court will adopt the numerical limitations on depositions and interrogatories established in Fed. R. Civ. P. 30(a)(2)(A), 33.]

a. A settlement conference will be held on _____ at _____ o'clock __.m.

It is hereby ordered that all settlement conferences that take place before the magistrate judge shall be confidential.

() Pro se parties and attorneys only need be present.

() Pro se parties, attorneys, and client representatives with authority to settle must be present. (NOTE: This requirement is not fulfilled by the presence of counsel. If an insurance company is involved, an adjustor authorized to enter into settlement must also be present.)

PLEA AGREEMENT AND STATEMENT OF FACTS
RELEVANT TO SENTENCING

The United States of America (the government), by and through _____,
Assistant United States Attorney for the District of Colorado, and the defendant,
_____, personally and by counsel, _____, submit the following Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing pursuant to
D.C.COLO.LCrR 11.1.

I. PLEA AGREEMENT

The defendant agrees to plead guilty to _____ of the Indictment [or Information] charging a violation of ____ U.S.C. § _____, _____. [Insert additional charges, if any.]

[Set forth the complete agreement between the parties, including whether the agreement is pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(e)(1)(A), (B), or (C), and whether there are agreements regarding departure from the guideline range and the amount of restitution.]

II. STATUTORY PENALTIES

The maximum statutory penalty for a violation of _____ U.S.C. § _____ is: not more than _____ months imprisonment; not more than $ _____ fine, or both; not more than _____ years supervised release; $ _____ special assessment fee; plus _____ restitution. [If the exact amount of restitution is not known, explain the parties' position on how restitution should be determined.] [Insert, if applicable: The minimum statutory penalty is _____ months imprisonment.]

The conviction may cause the loss of civil rights, including but not limited to the rights to possess firearms, vote, hold elected office, and sit on a jury. [Insert if applicable: If the defendant is an alien, the conviction may cause the defendant to be deported or confined indefinitely if there is no country to which the defendant may be deported.]

A violation of the conditions of probation or supervised release may result in a separate prison sentence.

III. STIPULATION OF FACTUAL BASIS AND FACTS RELEVANT TO SENTENCING

The parties agree that there is no dispute as to the material elements which establish a factual basis of the offense of conviction.

Pertinent facts are set out below in order to provide a factual basis of the plea and to provide facts which the parties believe are relevant, pursuant to § 1B1.3, for computing the appropriate guideline range. To the extent the parties disagree about the facts relevant to sentencing, the statement of facts identifies which facts are known to be in dispute at the time of the plea. (§ 6B1.4(b))

The statement of facts herein does not preclude either party from presenting and arguing, for sentencing purposes, additional facts or factors not included herein which are relevant to the guideline computation (§ 1B1.3) or to sentencing in general (§ 1B1.4). In "determining the factual basis for the sentence, the court will consider the stipulation [of the parties], together with the results of the presentence investigation, and any other relevant information." (§ 6B1.4 Comm.)

The parties agree that the government's evidence would show that the date on which conduct relevant to the offense (§ 1B1.3) began is _____.

The parties agree that the government's evidence would be: [Insert evidence]

IV. SENTENCING COMPUTATION

The parties stipulate that sentencing in this case will be determined by application of the sentencing guidelines, issued pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 994(a).

[Insert, if applicable: Any estimation by the parties regarding the estimated appropriate guideline application does not preclude either party from asking the court to depart from the otherwise appropriate guideline range at sentencing, if that party believes that there exists an aggravating or mitigating circumstance of a kind, or to a degree, not adequately taken into consideration by the Sentencing Commission in formulating the sentencing guidelines.

The parties understand that the court may impose any sentence, up to the statutory maximum, regardless of any guideline range computed, and that the court is not bound by any position of the parties. (§ 6B1.4(d)) The court is free, pursuant to §§ 6A1.3 and 6B1.4, to reach its own findings of facts and sentencing factors considering the parties' stipulations, the presentence investigation, and any other relevant information. (§ 6B1.4 Comm.; § 1B1.4)

To the extent the parties disagree about the sentencing factors, the computations below identify the factors which are in dispute. (§ 6B1.4(b))

- A. The base guideline is § ____, with a base offense level of ____.
- B. [Insert specific offense characteristics.]
- C. [Insert victim-related, role-in-offense obstruction and/or multiple count adjustments.]
- D. The adjusted offense level would therefore be ____.
- E. The defendant [should or should not] receive the adjustment for acceptance of responsibility. The resulting offense level would therefore be ____.
- F. The parties understand that the defendant's criminal history computation is tentative. The criminal history category is determined by the court. Known facts regarding the criminal history are as follows: [insert facts]. Based on that information, if no other information were discovered, the defendant's criminal history category would be ____ .
- G. Assuming the (tentative) criminal history facts of F. above, the career offender/criminal livelihood/armed career criminal adjustments [would or would not] apply. [If any of these adjustments applies, include the final offense level and/or criminal history category.]

H. The guideline range resulting from the estimated offense level(s) of [E. or G.] above, and the (tentative) criminal history category of [F. or G.] above, is _____ months. However, in order to be as accurate as possible, with the criminal history category undetermined at this time, the estimated offense level(s) of [E. or G.] above could conceivably result in a range from _____ months (bottom of Category I), to _____ months (top of Category VI). The sentence would be limited, in any case, by the statutory maximum.

I. Pursuant to guideline § 5E1.2, assuming the estimated offense level of [E. or G.] above, the fine range for this offense would be $ _____ to $ _____, plus applicable interest and penalties.

J. Pursuant to guideline § 5D1.2, if the court imposes the term of supervised release, that term shall be [insert if applicable: at least ____ years, but] not more than _____ years.

[K. Describe any restitution orders or conditions required by guideline § 5E1.1.]

V. WHY THE PROPOSED PLEA DISPOSITION IS APPROPRIATE

The parties believe the sentencing range resulting from the proposed plea agreement is appropriate because all relevant conduct is disclosed, the sentencing guidelines take into account all pertinent sentencing factors with respect to this defendant, and the charges to which the defendant has agreed to plead guilty adequately reflect the seriousness of the actual offense behavior.

This document states the parties' entire agreement. There are no other promises, agreements (or "side agreements"), terms, conditions, understandings, or assurances, express or implied. In entering this agreement, neither the government nor the defendant has relied, or is relying, on any terms, promises, conditions, or assurances not expressly stated in this agreement.

[REPEAT a. THROUGH h. FOR ALL REMAINING COUNTS.]

4. I know that if I am convicted of more than one count, the sentences may be either concurrent or consecutive.

5. I know that the information set out in Attachment A concerning the collection of fines and restitution applies to me, and I acknowledge that I have read Attachment A.

6. _____ I know that if the blank at the beginning of this sentence is checked, the information set out in Attachment B concerning the payment and collection of restitution applies to me, and I acknowledge that I have read Attachment B.

7. I know that I can be represented by an attorney at every stage of this proceeding, and I know that, if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed to represent me at the government's expense.

8. I know that I have a right to plead "not guilty," and I know that if I do plead "not guilty," I can persist in that plea.

9. I know that I have a right to a trial by jury, and I know that if I choose to stand trial:

- a. I have a right to the assistance of an attorney at every stage of the proceeding;
- b. I have a right to see and observe the witnesses who testify against me;

11. I know that if I plead guilty, there will be no appellate review of the question of whether or not I am guilty of the offense(s) to which I have pled guilty.

12. I know that once this court sentences me, both the government and I may be able to seek appellate review of the sentence imposed, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3742. I understand that any such appellate review will extend only to the question of whether a proper sentence was imposed. I understand that the Court of Appeals will not take up the question of whether I am guilty of the offense(s) to which I have pled guilty. I understand that I will have to serve the sentence that is imposed by this court, subject to modification of the sentence by order of the Court of Appeals and/or the United States Supreme Court.

13. No agreements have been reached and no representations have been made to me as to what the sentence in this case will be, except that which is explicitly detailed in the document entitled "Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing," which will be tendered to the court during this proceeding. I further understand that any agreements and stipulations in the document entitled "Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing" are binding on the court only if the parties ask the court in that document to be so bound and only if the court agrees to be so bound when it accepts my guilty plea(s).

14. The only plea agreement which has been entered into with the government is that which is set out in the document entitled "Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing," which will be tendered by the government and me in this case and which I incorporate herein by reference.

15. I understand that the court can make no decision as to what my sentence will be until the presentence report has been received and reviewed by the court.

16. I know that when I enter my plea(s) of guilty, the court may ask me questions under oath about the offense(s) to which I have pled guilty. The questions, if asked of me on the record and in the presence of my attorney, must be answered by me, and if I give false answers, I can be prosecuted for perjury.

17. I know that I have the right to ask the court any questions that I have concerning my rights, these proceedings, and my plea(s) to the charge(s).

18. I am _____ years of age. My education consists of _____

I [can] [cannot] understand the English language. (Circle either “can” or “cannot”)

19. Other than the promises of the government set out in the document entitled “Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing,” no promises and no threats of any sort have been made to me by anyone to induce me or to persuade me to enter my plea(s) in this case.

20. No one has promised me that I will receive probation or any other form of leniency because of my plea(s) of guilty.

21. I have had sufficient opportunity to discuss this case and my intended plea(s) of guilty with my attorney. I do not wish to consult with my attorney any further before I enter my plea(s) of guilty.

22. I am satisfied with my attorney. I believe that I have been represented effectively and competently in this case.

23. My decision to enter the plea(s) of guilty is made after full and careful thought, with the advice of my attorney, and with full understanding of my rights, the facts and circumstances of the case, and the potential consequences of my plea(s) of guilty. I was not under the influence of any drugs, medication, or intoxicants when I made the decision to enter my guilty plea(s). I am not now under the influence of any drugs, medication or intoxicants.

24. I have no mental reservations concerning the entry of my plea(s).

25. Insofar as it shows conduct on my part, the summary of facts set out in the document entitled "Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing" is true and correct, except as I have indicated in that document.

26. I know that I am free to change or delete anything contained in this statement and that I am free to list my objections and my disagreements with anything contained in the document entitled "Plea Agreement and Statement of Facts Relevant to Sentencing." I accept both documents as they are currently drafted.

ATTACHMENT A

COLLECTION OF FINE OR RESTITUTION BY GOVERNMENT AND PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO PAY (See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3611-15)

1. I understand that I will be required to pay interest on any fine or restitution of more than $2,500 unless the fine or restitution is paid in full before the fifteenth day after the date of the judgment or unless interest is waived by the court.

2. I understand that unless modified by the court, interest will be computed daily at a rate equal to the weekly average one-year constant maturity treasury yield, as published by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, for the calendar week preceding the first day on which I am liable for interest.

3. I understand that if a fine or restitution becomes delinquent, I shall be required to pay, as a penalty, an amount equal to ten percent of the principal amount that is delinquent.

4. I understand that if a fine or restitution becomes in default, I shall be required to pay, as a penalty, an amount equal to 15 percent of the principal amount that is delinquent.

5. I understand that in addition to any other collection procedures, any fine or restitution may give rise to the creation of a lien in favor of the United States upon my property and rights of property for payment of such fine or restitution as if my liability were a liability for a tax assessed under the Internal Revenue Code.

6. I understand that if I willfully fail to pay my fine or restitution, the court may revoke my probation or term of supervised release, modify the conditions of my supervision, or resentence me to any sentence which originally might have been imposed.

7. I understand that if I willfully fail to pay my fine, I may be guilty of a separate offense in addition to the offense(s) to which I am pleading guilty. I understand that if I am convicted of this new offense, which is called "Criminal Default" and is set out in 18 U.S.C. § 3615, I may be fined not more than twice the amount of the unpaid balance of the fine or $10,000, whichever is greater, imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

ATTACHMENT B

RESTITUTION

(See 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663, 3663A, and 3664)

1. I understand that in addition to any incarceration, supervised release, probation, fine and other penalties which may be imposed by the court, I also may be required to make restitution to any victim(s) of the offense(s) which I admit I committed, to compensate the victim(s) for any losses they may have sustained as a result of my conduct.

2. I understand that an order of restitution may be enforced by the government in the manner provided for the collection of fines and restitution under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3611-15 (see Attachment A), or in the same manner as a judgment in a civil action. I further understand that any victim named in the restitution order may enforce the order in the same manner as he/she would enforce a judgment in a civil action.

IN THE MATTER OF)
RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT)	Amended
AMENDED ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 1999-6)	Administrative Order 1999-6

Under D.C.COLO.LR 83.6, the rules of professional conduct, as adopted by the Colorado Supreme Court, are adopted as standards of professional responsibility applicable to this court. On June 17, 1999, the Colorado Supreme Court, en banc, adopted Colo.R.P.C. 1.2 Scope and Objectives of Representation; Colo.R.P.C. 4.2 Communication with Person Represented by Counsel; Colo.R.P.C. 4.3 Dealing with Unrepresented Person and C.R.C.P. 11 Signing of Pleadings as new rules. Those rules were adopted to permit limited representation by counsel. These changes are not consistent with Fed. R. Civ. P. 11 and are also inconsistent with the view of the judges of this court concerning the ethical responsibility of members of the bar of this court. Accordingly, it is now

ORDERED that the above described changes to the Colorado Rules of Professional Responsibility are not applicable:

a) in this court; and

b) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Colorado in adversary proceedings or matters governed by Fed.R.Bankr.P.9014. In addition, any limitation in the scope of representation of a Debtor, whether in a bankruptcy case or adversary proceeding, shall be disclosed in the statement required by 11 U.S.C. § 329 and Fed.R.Bankr.P.2016(b).
